LUX ET ORIGO

for congregation, choir, trumpet, and organ

(2011)
Lux et Origo is a musical setting of the contemporary Ordinary of Holy Communion as practiced by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The melodies of this setting are adapted from the collection of ancient plainchants known by the same name (after a Kyrie trope used in the Medieval church: "lux et origo lucis, summe Deus/light and source of light, supreme God"). Those chants are traditionally associated with Eastertide, and this setting is most appropriate for use during that time.
In peace, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For the peace from above, and for our salvation, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the church of God, and for the unity of all, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy. For this holy house, and for all who offer here their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

Help, save, comfort and defend us, gracious Lord. Amen, amen.
This is the feast of vic'try for our God. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
Worthy is Christ, the Lamb who was slain, whose blood set us free to be people of God.

Power and riches, wisdom and strength, and honor and blessing and glory are his.

This is the feast of victory for our God. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
Sing with all the people of God, and join in the hymn of all creation:

Blessing and honor, glory and might be to God and the Lamb forever. Amen.
This is the feast of victory for our God. For the Lamb who was slain has begun his reign.

Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.
